

Diploma Program in Filmmaking

For serious filmmakers who want to start their own successful careers in film, video production, or television, we offer our Diploma Program in Filmmaking – an intensive yet rewarding 40 week course that covers all the essential aspects of the filmmaking cycle. Students will make their own short films and have the opportunity to submit them into film festivals.

Certificate Program in Filmmaking

Filmmaking

The Certificate Program in Filmmaking is a concentrated exploration into the processes of making films, conducted over two 10-week terms. In the first term, each student writes, directs, shoots and edits a 5-minute No-Dialogue short film/video project. In the second term, students create a 7-minute, synch-sound film, working together as a team. This immersive, hands-on program shows you how to completely utilize every aspect of production, artistically as well as technically.

Performing Arts | Acting

Pour out emotion, action, and drama with each look, word, and gesture – all through the power of acting.

Diploma Program in Performing Arts | Acting

The 40 weeks Diploma Program in Performing Arts - Acting for the Camera incorporates different acting theories and methods where students study in non-traditional acting classes that emphasize discipline and work ethic.

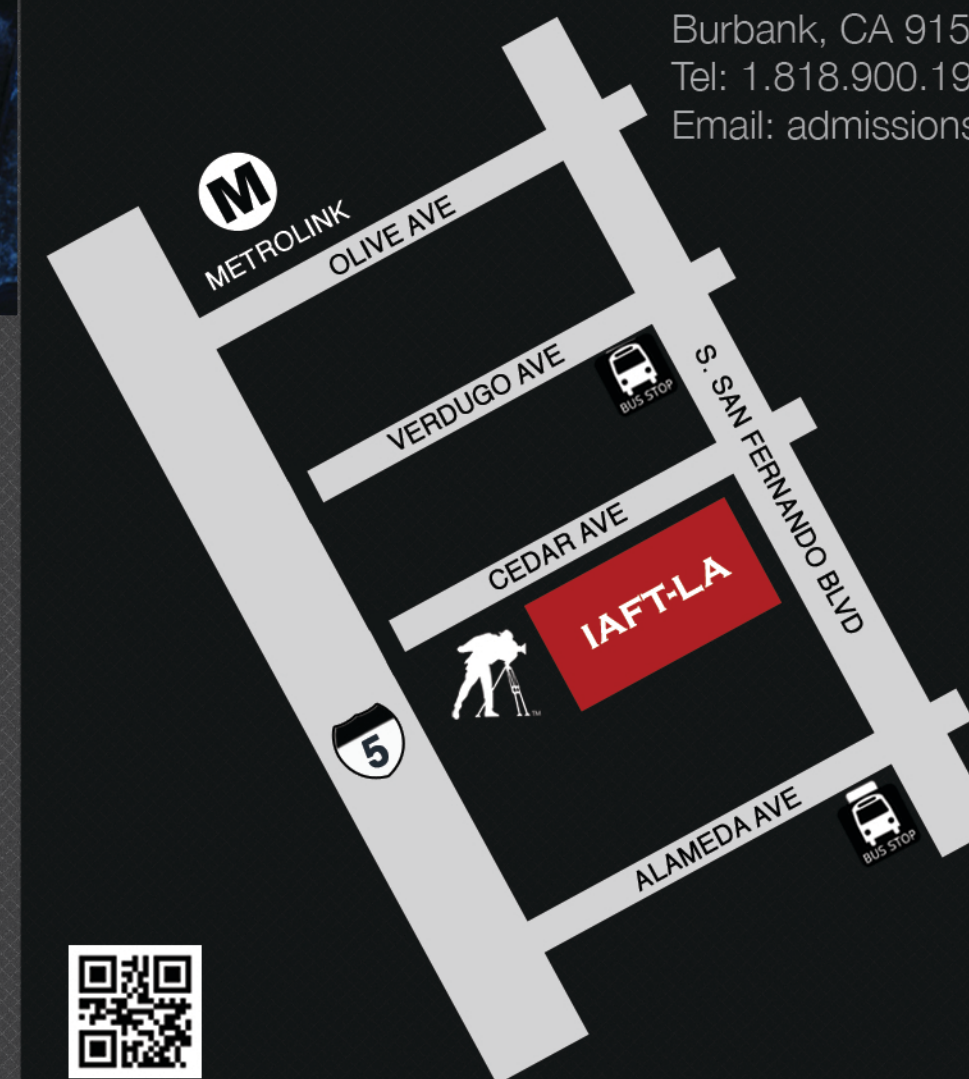

Certificate Program in Performing Arts | Acting

Composed of two terms, this program offers a holistic approach to acting. Students are required to participate in public performances and, through the program's synergy with the filmmaking curriculum, student film projects.

Open House

We hold Open House events twice a month, providing you with the opportunity to learn more about our courses, tour our campus while classes are in session and ask any questions you may have. Attend filmmaking and acting workshops too -- contact us for details!

Mission Statement

The mission of the International Academy of Film and Television-Burbank is to provide students with relevant theory and significant hands-on training in Filmmaking and Acting. The Academy emphasizes practical experience by providing school facilities reflecting the same professional workplace environments into which graduates will be seeking employment. The Academy's faculty are experienced professionals who share with students industry-tested practices in their fields of expertise to prepare students for entry-level positions.

Testimonials

"I'm very grateful for everything I've learned at IAFT. It's been the best thing I've done so far. Enrolling there was a good choice. All the mentors are great. For me, I feel like it was meant to be, it's in my blood."

- Federico Jimenez, Filmmaking Student | IAFT-Los Angeles

"The best thing about IAFT is the whole way of teaching, especially directing. I feel it can get very philosophical, and I like the fact that they bring in so many other elements as to what directing really is."

- Sarah Kitchen, Filmmaking Student | IAFT-Los Angeles

"I'd never taken an acting class before. I took a class at IAFT, came after work, and I loved it -- looked forward to it every day. There were eight of us in the class, everyone got individual attention and help. I thought the teacher was great... All in all, I had a great time, learned A LOT, met some great people and it was definitely worth it."

- James Marshall, Acting Student | IAFT-Los Angeles

"This is my first time attending IAFT, and I love it! The small class size makes it very focused. All the mentors have real-world experience that they bring right into the classroom. One thing I've always looked for in schools is hands-on learning opportunities. That's what IAFT is about. I've learned so much, and this is only the beginning. I look forward to all the knowledge to come!"

- Alyssa Aguilos, Filmmaking Student | IAFT-Los Angeles

"I have always believed that money can't buy creativity, talent and style, that you either have it or not. But IAFT opened my eyes, and I've realized that with great coaching in a place like this - they can mold you as such"

- Chloe Burma, Acting Student | IAFT-Hong Kong

Founded in 2004, the International Academy of Film and Television (IAFT) began its journey of affordable, top quality filmmaking instruction on the beautiful, tropical island of Cebu, Philippines. IAFT introduced filmmaking techniques straight from Hollywood itself to its students across the globe through the experienced hands of industry veterans. As a result, IAFT has become identified by its Certificate and Diploma programs in Filmmaking, the Performing Arts - Acting, as well as other highly specialized workshops.

Methods

IAFT differentiates itself from other top film schools by defining itself as a boutique film school that focuses on hands-on, learn-by-doing training. The school provides an optimal mix of theoretical and practical classroom sessions with small class sizes, combined with intensive project work.

The culmination of every IAFT experience is the pinnacle of creative achievement for an aspiring filmmaker: a short film designed, written, filmed, directed, and edited by its student creator, all with top of the line industry equipment and techniques.

Focus

The focus of IAFT is simple: to deliver a film school experience at a fraction of the price to aspiring filmmakers from all walks of life. IAFT prides itself on offering instruction that is affordable, while focusing on entrepreneurial encouragement.

IAFT offers unique advantages you can't find in other film schools, like:

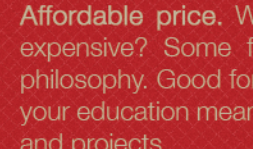

Learn by doing. At IAFT, we believe you learn best by actually doing, and we embrace that concept wholeheartedly.

Personalized attention. IAFT features small class sizes. We are a boutique film school, for serious artists who want to learn how to create.

Reach your creative potential. This is not just a training seminar, full of technical how-tos. This is a creative relationship that develops your artistic and technical skills with proven professional mentors and coaches.

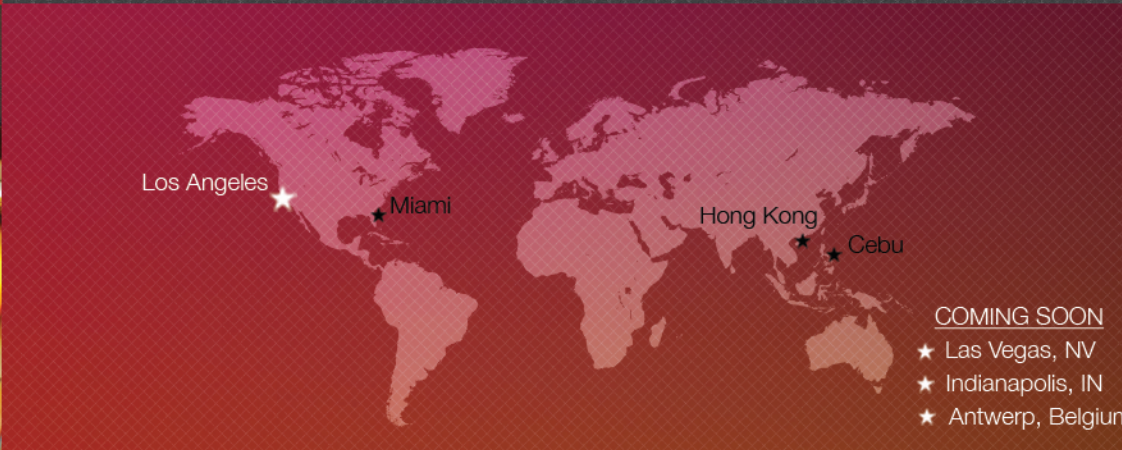

Affordable price. Who said creating cinematic brilliance had to be expensive? Some film schools throughout the country have that philosophy. Good for them – we don't. The more money you save on your education means the more money you have to put into your films and projects.

Real-world perspective. We encourage you to take your ingenuity and turn it into a productive and profitable business based off what you will learn here at IAFT.

Global filmmaking made local – only with IAFT.
